

Yellowstone Park's newest geyser, which made its appearance without warning, suddenly erupting a column of hot water, mud and stones a hundred feet into the air. This latest addition to the natural wonders of the Wyoming National Park is located in a formerly inactive hot pool near Roaring Mountain. Wide World.

Charlotte, Ruth and Mary Hanna, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hanna of New York, at the White Sulphur Springs Horse Show. Underwood & Underwood.

Secretary of State Charles E. Hughes waving his last goodbye to New York from the new Munson liner Pan America, on which he sailed to represent the United States at the Brazilian Centennial Exposition. Underwood & Underwood.

Above—Princess Helene of Roumania and Princess Irene of Greece photographed while visiting the Roumanian royal family's chateau at Sinais. Wide World.

Mexican natives of Albuquerque, in their annual fiesta, celebrating "Los Matchines" dance, an old ceremony dating to the days of Montezuma. This is the only place in the world where the dance is given. Keystone.

Cadets of West Point's fourth class lunching at the roadside, near Peekskill, on their way to Lake Oseawanna for a series of sham battles. Fotograms.

Above—Mrs. C. C. Coombs, wife of the Grand Master of the District of Columbia, unveiling a marble monument to the memory of Major-Gen. Calisto Garcia Iniquez, erected by Cuban and Washington members of the Masonic order in the Union Station at the capital. Pacific and Atlantic.